“ Ann was a delightful, active, spunky bright-red-haired 10 year old when I first knew her. She kept that fun and spunkiness and added great humor in her adult liife; it helped her weather the many ups and downs she experienced. Ann was a gift to everyone who knew her - humor, smart critiques of the current scene, and a kind and loving heart.

“ She always had a sharp mind and tongue. Quick witted, talkative and charming. Those who knew her were close to her. Our family is thankful the wonderful care she received by White Oak Manor in Shelby. The staff took immense time to know her and adapted her into their family. She was tired and it was time to go home.

“ She was a wonderful sister-in-law. We would talk on the phone for hours. When ever we got together we had fun. I will miss her very much. I loved her very much.
